(ARDIS Director of Research: Mr. Ralph McGehee. 422 Arkansas, Herndon, Va., 22070; 703-437-8487)

(ARDIS National Director: Mr. James Otis, Telephone: 213-395-5907)

Yes, I would like to support ARDIS efforts to educate, to amend United States National Security policies, and to assist others as they leave the national security establishment to publicly dissent.

Enclosed is my contribution of $25 ( ), $50 ( ), $100 ( ), other_____.

In appreciation of my support, I understand that I shall promptly receive one or more of the following as indicated: With a $25. contribution I am entitled to any one of items a,b,c,d,e; $50. any two items; $100 any four items. Please specify carefully.

a. ( ) The NATIONAL SECURITY READING LIST (an annotated bibliography of the best 100 books about "national security.") and the book (currently available in draft) entitled BOMBS FOR BEGINNERS.

b. ( ) An autographed copy of IN SEARCH OF ENEMIES, by John Stockwell, W.W. Norton, 1978.

c. ( ) A video cassette of John Stockwell's lecture, THE SECRET WARS OF THE CIA.

d. ( ) An audio cassette of John Stockwell's lecture, THE SECRET WARS OF THE CIA.

e. ( ) UNDER THE TUNNELS OF CU CHI, by John Stockwell, WECAN, 1987. This is a manuscript copy of the untold story: the dilemma of Vietnamese women who were obliged to make their lives in the shadow of "The American War" in Vietnam as see through the experiences of Mai Li Stockwell and her husband, John: her involvement with the foreign Americans, how she and her daughter got out in the evacuation of April, 1975, and their return with their son to visit her parents on their rice farm in Vietnam's now peaceful delta in 1985.

NOTE: Remittance by money order or cashier's check will greatly expedite orders. Alas, personal checks require a full month to clear the banks. (Please understand, when a check bounces the bank charges ARDIS a penalty!)
